It's National Library Card Sign-up Month!

It's back-to-school time, and I'm sure there are many items on your student's school supply list: freshly sharpened pencils, a new backpack, a 3-ring binder, to name a few. One other item to add to the list is a library card! Stop by the Eldredge Public Library to obtain a free library card for your student and yourself. If you already have cards, stop by anyway to say hello! You'll get to see the new materials available this fall and find out about upcoming programs and events.

Libraries play a crucial role in the education and development of children, offering a variety of programs to spark creativity and stimulate an interest in reading and learning. Through access to technology, media resources and educational programs, a library card gives students the tools to succeed in the classroom.

The EPL offers free access to computers and databases along with books, movies, video games, museum passes, programs, trainings, and more that encourage students to challenge themselves, investigate ideas, and pursue their passions. The library staff is trained, ready, and eager to assist them in finding the resources they need. Getting a library card is easy; just come in with a valid

ID and fill out the form. The CLAMS library card provides instant, free access to resources from the EPL, the entire CLAMS network of libraries, and from institutions across Massachusetts! (Children five years old and up are eligible for a library card. Registration forms must be signed by a parent or guardian.)
