

Friends of the Eldredge Public Library Book Sale

Donation Guidelines

Thank you for choosing the Eldredge Public Library for your book donations. All funds from the sale go directly to the library to help purchase equipment and support their wonderful programs for all ages.

We accept items in many interest areas and in their very best condition.

We welcome:

- Fiction: Novels, mysteries and thrillers are our biggest sellers, hardcover and paperback
- Classic literature, nonfiction, biography and history
- Media: DVDs, music CDs, audiobook CDs and puzzles
- Children's books (no board books, please)
- Cooking and gardening, hobbies, art books and "coffee table" books
- Chatham and Cape Cod books both fiction and nonfiction.

We cannot accept:

encyclopedias	large series	medical books
textbooks	magazines	audio cassette tapes
business texts	self-help	children's board books

books that are musty, stained or in poor and deteriorated shape

At this time, we can accept 1 bag of donations at the front desk during open library hours. Any donations equaling more than 1 bag are by appointment only. Your donations will be reviewed before they are accepted. To arrange an appointment, please contact FEPL Book Sale committee member at:
