

Friends of the Eldredge Public Library Book Sale

Donation Guidelines

Thank you for choosing the Eldredge Public Library for your book donations. All funds from the sale go directly to the library to help purchase equipment and support their wonderful programs for all ages.

We accept items in many interest areas and in their very best condition.

We welcome:

- Fiction: Novels, mysteries and thrillers are our biggest sellers, hardcover and paperback (15 years or younger)
- Classic literature, nonfiction, biography and history
- Children's books (no board books please)
- Cooking and gardening, hobbies, art books, "coffee table," travel books and puzzles
- Chatham and Cape Cod books both fiction and nonfiction

We cannot accept

encyclopedias	large series	medical books
textbooks	magazines	audio cassette tapes
business texts	self-help	children's board books or books that are musty, stained or in poor and deteriorated condition

Donations may be left in the marked basket, under the stairs, on the lower level outside the Forgeron Room

Questions: contact FEPL Book Sale committee member at FEPLbooksale@eldredgelibrary.org