MARCH 2024

Which picture book will be crowned the 2024 March Book Madness Champion? This year New Picture Books are battling Old Picture Books and only you can decide which one will win! Visit Youth Services to browse the competitors and to pick up your voting bracket. Voting will take place every Friday and Saturday in March.

Join us for a wag-tastic adventure at our Bluey Bash on March 16th! Inspired by the beloved Blue Heeler pup and her family, this interactive and fun-filled event is perfect for Bluey fans of all ages. We'll bring Bluey's world to life with creative crafts and fun activities that encourage imaginative play. Be part of the magic during this paw-some party at the library! Registration is required.

NEW KIDS ON THE BOOK

New Kids On the Book is our new book group for emerging readers in Kindergarten to 2nd Grade and their caregivers. Each month we'll meet and explore the pages of excellent early reader books. We'll dive into new adventures and celebrate the magic of storytelling through interactive discussions, themed activities, and crafts. Books will be provided by the library and will be available for pickup after registration. A one-time registration is required.

1,000 Books Before Kindergarten: Tip for the Day

Imagination plays a critical role in problem solving and learning. Nurture your child's imagination by playing games together. Pretend your napkins or tissues are leaves swirling down from a tree or laundry swaying on a clothesline on a gusty day. Wave them as the wind blows. Use them to play peek-a-boo. Turn everyday items into new adventures using your imagination!

Baby Yoga Is Back !

Caregivers with six week old infants through crawling babies are invited to spend some special time together practicing yoga, singing rhymes, connecting with other caregivers, and learning about your baby's development. A one-time registration is required.
