APRIL 2024

Join us during April Vacation Week for a special Drop-In Storytime, Tuesday, April 16th at 1:15 pm geared towards preschoolers. Or come Stay and Play with your toddler at 10:30 am on Friday April 19th. No registration required!

This month we are excited about our newest collaboration with the Chatham Conservation Foundation and the Friends of Sylvan Gardens! There will be a lot of great programs ahead, including a StoryWalk from April 13th through May 10th. Come walk through the beautiful gardens as you read Backyard Fairies by Phoebe Wahl.

We will continue to have fairies in mind during April Vacation Week, when we hold our Fairy & Gnome House Making Workshop on Thursday, April 18th at 1pm for children grades K-5 and their grown-ups. All the supplies will be available for you to make the most imaginative home for your local fairies and gnomes. Registration is required at www.eldredgelibrary.org.

1,000 Books Before Kindergarten: Tip for the Day

Rhyming is the key that helps children understand the sounds that make up words. This develops first with exposure, then with recognition, and finally when they can make their own rhymes! Use your child's name and make a special rhyme: "Jenny Jenny Bo Benny Banana Fanna Fo Fenny."

Cotuit Center for the Art's Bus is Pulling into Town!

The Marjorie Lynne Art Bus is visiting the Library to provide our teens with a truly unique art experience! Join us for a special School Vacation Tween/Teen Night on Tuesday, April 16th and let your creativity soar! Registration is required at www.eldredgelibrary.org
