May 2024

May 4th is Free Comic Book Day!

FREE
 COMIC BOOK
 -DAY-

1st SATURDAY
 IN MAY!

May 4, 2024

What is Free Comic Book Day? This yearly event occurs on the first Saturday of May, and bookstores, comic book shops, and libraries all around the world give out free comic books. The Eldredge Public Library is excited to again participate as a library partner in this year's Free Comic Book Day!

Students in K-12th Grade can come pick out a free comic, create comic art, and explore comics and graphic novels here at the Library! Please note that free comics are limited and only available while supplies last. Students may pick one free comic.

May 4th is also Star Wars Day!

The fun keeps going on this amazing Saturday. Not only is it Free Comic Book Day, it's also Star Wars Day! Drop-in to Youth Services for some DIY Star Wars activities, crafts, and fun. Show off your favorite Star Wars action figures. We hope you don your favorite Star Wars attire or costume and come visit us in Youth Services!

MAY THE 4TH BE WITH YOU!

1,000 Books Before Kindergarten

Ready, Set, Read! Fit in 1,000 books before Kindergarten!

Resource Corner

A great way to build literacy skills with your little one is by having a conversation with them while you're reading together.

You can do this by pausing throughout the story and asking the child questions about what they think is happening in the story or what they see in the illustrations. This encourages them to think about the story and actively engage with it. Having a back-and-forth conversation helps your little one develop their vocabulary, comprehension skills, critical thinking abilities, and pre-reading skills. It's a great way to read together, and it's fun for you both!
