MARCH 2026

Say Hello to Chelsea!

We're so excited to welcome Chelsea Cariota, our new Youth Services Assistant Librarian! Chelsea's work experience in bookstores and community collaboratives, her education in literature and interactive media, and her literary knowledge, creativity, and technology skills make her a great fit here in Youth Services. We're excited for the energy and enthusiasm she'll bring to Youth Services! Come on in and say hello, we can't wait for you to meet her!

1,000 Books Before Kindergarten: Tip for the Day

Imagination plays a critical role in problem solving and learning. Nurture your child's imagination by playing games together. Pretend your napkins or tissues are leaves swirling down from a tree or laundry swaying on a clothesline on a gusty day. Wave them as the wind blows. Use them to play peek-a-boo. Turn everyday items into new adventures using your imagination!
